The View From Here by Senator Dennis Guth

I don't write many newsletters when we are not in session, but a couple of recent items should be addressed. First, we found out Iowa's fiscal year ended with a surplus of $1.24 billion, putting us in a very strong financial position.

plan triggered by the 2020 census. Iowa has good laws regarding redistricting that require districts to be compact and stay very close to the same number of voters in each district.

no rules from the Feds to enforce anything, so there is really nothing to force employers to take action. I would encourage resistance to this intimidation. One idea to resist mandates that was put forward was to prohibit any state agency or money to be used to enforce the mandates.

working to see what can be done to protect our liberty regarding health care choices. This is always a very busy time of year and I too often forget to acknowledge those I care about the most.
